

TENNESSEE GENERAL ASSEMBLY FISCAL REVIEW COMMITTEE

FISCAL NOTE

HB 620

February 11, 2009

SUMMARY OF BILL: Broadens the misdemeanor offense of indecent exposure to include exposure in the home in the intended presence of a child, regardless of the circumstances under which the child is present. Under current law, indecent exposure to a child in the home is an offense only if the child was invited, enticed, or fraudulently induced to enter the home for the purpose of sexual gratification of the offender.

ESTIMATED FISCAL IMPACT:

Increase State Revenue – Not Significant Increase State Expenditures – Not Significant

Increase Local Revenue – Not Significant Increase Local Expenditures – Not Significant

Assumption:

- A small increase in cases in the court system, which will result in additional state and local government expenditures for processing the cases and additional state and local government revenue from fees, taxes and costs collected. These expenditures and revenue are estimated to be not significant.
